WKXL's listenership is older (35+), affluent (65+) and is more likely to be a principal in business or an organization and a local consumer. We make these assertions based on various metrics to establish what we believe is an audience of over 10,000 unique listeners per day. This model has been built over the years and we feel is more statistically significant than the scant measurements done by Nielsen in small markets.

In Touch

Fresh and Informative, Veteran Broadcaster and the native voice of New Hampshire, Ken Cail together with accomplished classical singer, teacher, and politician, Jane Cormier bring a wide array of topics to the table that will intrigue and delight you. Both can talk sports with the best and are not afraid to delve into the more intimate topics like aging gracefully. Listen in and always end with food for thought!

Mon & Wed @ 11 AM & Thurs @ 8 AM

Artful Living

Jane Cormier is a Concord resident who has enjoyed over 25 years performing on the musical stage, directing, and teaching music right here in the Granite State. Artful Living offers wide-ranging topics including the arts, aging with grace, community happenings, as well as other life topics. Jane looks forward to sharing her “gift of gab” with WKXL listeners, hopefully bringing a little smile and joy to our WKXL family.
